INDETERMINED DAY.—The 4th of July was colchested in a most appropriate manner by the residents of in a most appropriate manner by the residents of the Ration's apptial. In the moraing the procession we formed in Front of the City Hall, compressing the Old Deskeders of Siti, the Major and Council with swoots, a brigade of volunteers, carriages with invited guests and t.e. eivice societies. There were also neveral funds in electronic fields in the season. The route taken by the procession was from the City Hall to Third street, thence to the Aventus, and thence to the beautiful grounds south of the Executive Manston.

SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—The Male Gramma School Stammaton.—The Maie Grammar school of the Second District, Mr. Wilson principal, was examined last Frilay evening by Mesara. M. M. Miller and O. C. Wight. Among the teachers present we noticed Mise Middleton, of the Female Grammar School, First District, and Mr. Thompson, of the Fourth District Maie Grammar School. The scholars exhibited great promptness in their answers. The school is situated in the Northern Libertice Engine House, on the corner of this treet and Mr. York areggs. Geography, grammar, arithmetic, and reading, were the principal studies in which the pupils, were examined. The result of this examination afforded great satisfaction to the board of trustees.

ANOTHER MAN KILLED.—Saturday night a number of men, both colored and white, were assembled in a house on Rixth street, between P and G. One of the negroes, by the name of Matthias Buttier, had an army revolver that had been left in his sare, which he was showing to some of the men, when, by some secilest, as was stated by all of the witnesses, it exploded and the ball passed through the left wrist and heart of one James Doyle, (who was sitting in a chair in front of Butler), killing him almost insteasity. Coroner Woodward held an inquest over the bedy, and the jury found that its deceased came to his death by a hall from a pictol in the hands of Matthias Butler, who was arrested and sent to juil for equel by Justies Gibberson.
